On Feb. 5, 2014 60 seniors went to City Hall to witness the City Finance Committee Chaired by Councillor Raymond Louie, augment city funding of the Seniors Addition at Killarney by $1.2 million. Delegates who spoke in favour of the Motion were: Park Board Chair Niki Sharma, Commissioners Aaron Jasper and Melissa De Genova followed by Lorna Gibbs, Mohinder Sidhu and Mabel Leung (SVSACS); the motion was passed. The additional monies are from the 2013 operating budget surplus. Mayor Robinson had put forward a motion to that effect on Jan. 21, 2014 to expedite construction of the addition by earmarking funds from the 2013 operating budget surplus. Earlier in the month, on Jan. 7, 2014 MP Wai Young announced that the Federal Government would contribute $2.5 million to the project. Monies promised by the three levels of government now total $7.5 million. Lorna thanked SVNH and the Killarney Community Centre Society for providing the buses that transported supporters to City Hall.
6. Presentation by Jennifer Mitchell and Bill Johnston from the West Coast Railway Association. The WCRA is a nonprofit charitable organization dedicated to the preservation of the Heritage of the railways of B.C. Bill gave a history of the West Coast Railway Association, home of the Royal Hudson steam engine. The association operates the 12-acre West Coast Railway Heritage Park at Squamish and the 374 Pavilion located at Davie St. and Pacific Boulevard in Yaletown. WCRA has the largest collection of railway artifacts west of Montreal. Seniors may join the WCRA Society for as little as $39.20/year. The Society meets at 7:30 pm on the last Thursday of each month at Confederation Park (120 N. Willingdon) in Burnaby. Membership includes many privileges including unlimited year round access to the Heritage Park in Squamish. The 374 Pavilion is free (donations accepted).
